What is Partycipation Festival and what do we do?

Partycipation is a festival for music, creativity and future worth living in. It is an extraordinary project where people come together to learn from each other, to be creative, to connect and have fun.

As the festival runs from the 16-20 of July 2016 our task is divided in three phases.

- 1) Preparation phase: During the preparation phase you will create the festival location (construct tents and stages, decorate the area etc.) and cook together.
- 2) Festival: During the festival we will help for example with the cutting of vegetables and the cooking, keeping the area clean and work at the bars.
- 3) Post-Festival phase: After the festival is over, we will work in the cleaning and dismantling.

Accommodation: We will be hosted at the festival location. Things to bring with you: a sleeping bag and a mat (we will sleep on the floor), working clothes, working shoes, a raincoat, a swimsuit, sun protection. If you require any medications (e.g. because of an allergy), don't forget to bring them with you. If you have a camping tent let us know if you can bring it with you. Showers and toilets are indoor (closed) so do not worry☺!

Food: We will cook for ourselves, we will cook together and live together with the organizers of the festival. Please inform us if you require a special diet. The food during the festival will be vegan & vegetarian (=veg(etari)an) organic meals. Your accommodation and food are covered.

As Leader: As a leader your work is voluntary (no remuneration). Grenzenlos will cover your transportation cost to the camp and from the camp (for camps outside Vienna). Food and accommodation during the camp (and at least 3 days before the camp starts) is included.

As a leader you will receive a training a few days before the camp starts.

If you live abroad, the cost for transportation to Austria and from Austria cannot be covered by Grenzenlos

Let's volunteer in Austria!!!
